

"When I was young and first went into a library I remember the high shelves. It seemed intimidating, exciting, a wilderness of books. I needed a guide, someone who knew the pathways that would entrance me. That guide was the librarian. That's why you need both. To guide."

Great
School
Libraries

Jackie Morris

Author and Artist

