

“

”

"Like many children, my school library was my gateway to worlds of adventure and the librarian was my tour guide. As a life long learner, librarians became the teacher who helped me to find references and resources and later to guide my professional work with the informational fluency skills they taught me".

Great
School
Libraries

John McCarthy, Ed.S

Teacher, Consultant and Edutopia writer

